 DARGAN
TOOLS

For over forty years, Dargan Tools has been a steadfast presence in the Irish market, evolving into a leading supplier for the Hardware, DIY, and Builders Merchant sectors.

We are now proud to be the official distributor of BIHUI products in Ireland. Founded in 2009, BIHUI specialises in developing tools for professional installers, focusing on the design, manufacture, and distribution of tiling and construction tools and machinery. These tools are essential for the safe handling, transportation, and cutting of large format tiles, as well as the installation of various ceramic and porcelain tiles. Innovation and quality are at the heart of BIHUI's mission.

With a diverse range of hundreds of products, BIHUI continually emphasises innovation and production improvements to meet market needs, ensuring the highest quality products available. Their extensive range of large format tools is solution-oriented, developed through active collaboration with industry professionals. This interaction results in practical, high-quality products that make operations easier and less strenuous.
